

KIDNEY CANCER CANADA AWARD OF EXCELLENCE NURSING – UROLOGY

This award, sponsored by Kidney Cancer Canada, in honour of its co-founder Tony Clark, acknowledges an individual or group of urological nurses who have made an exceptional difference in the lives of kidney cancer patients.

Tony was diagnosed with kidney cancer in 2004 and throughout his cancer journey was focused on living life and advocating for educational resources and support for other kidney cancer patients and their caregivers.

Nominations should describe how the nominee (at least two of the following):

- Demonstrates the importance of the nurse/patient relationship.
- Demonstrates nursing leadership through clinical practice and advocates for improved patient care.
- Mentors fellow nurses in the area of kidney cancer management.
- Utilizes current urology nursing research and theory or conducts research that has a clinical focus and practical application for patients with kidney cancer.
- Has developed or promotes patient education materials that address symptom management or treatment related.

This award is open to all UNC members. All nurses are encouraged to apply for this award regardless of their experience.

The nomination deadline is May 15, 2026. Following this date, the Recognition of Excellence Committee will evaluate all nominations.
